Position:

Letter of Buyer's Commitment to the seller's procedure.

We XXXXXXXXXX, represented by: XXXXXX, Position: XXXXXXXX, declare that we have made the formal purchase request to: XXXXXX, through ICPO NO. XXXXX, dated: XXXX, in which we commit to purchase the following product:

Product: XXXXX

Quantity: XXXXX

Condition: XXX

Destination port: XXXX

We declare under penalty of perjury and with all legal responsibility, that we have read, understood, understood and accepted the procedure sent in the official XXXXX offer, committing ourselves through the ICPO sent to comply with the obligations that correspond to the buyer within the procedure, without variations, without changes, without requesting documents outside the procedural process, guaranteeing that we are willing to fulfill our obligations with the seller until the closing of the purchase and sale operation.

If we do not comply with the continuity of the procedure after sending the ICPO, we accept that we may be named for BLACK LIST, in addition to the fact that the seller may inform the FBI, the ICC and the INTERPOL, being reported for abuse of ICPO, because this is A federal offense, this offense came into force on November 15, 2008 after a meeting between the Federal Reserve, the European Central Bank, Interpol, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Central Intelligence Agency.

I have read and understood the seriousness of the above warning and realize the serious impact it has on all oil transactions.

I declare to send this letter to the seller, together with the ICPO, with all responsibility as legal representative of this purchasing company.
